Who will be on your account?

Certification of Beneficial Ownership: In May of 2018 the federal government issued regulations requiring disclosure of key individuals who own and control the legal entity at time deposit accounts are opened. Click HERE for more details.

What is an Authorized Signer?

An individual that will act upon the account. They have full transactional rights regardless of business ownership.

What is a Beneficial Owner?

An individual, if any, who owns, directly or indirectly, 25% or more of the equity interests of the legal entity member (e.g., each natural person that owns 25% or more of the shares of a corporation). A Beneficial Owner does not have any transactional rights on the account unless they are added as an Authorized Signer.

What is a Control person?

A Control Person is an individual with significant responsibility for managing the legal entity member (e.g., a Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, Chief Operating Officer, Managing Member, General Partner, President, Vice President, or Treasurer). The Control Person does not need to be an Authorized Signer or Beneficial Owner. The Control Person does not have any transactional rights on the account unless they are added as an Authorized Signer.

List all account associates below. Designate one individual to be the Control Person of the business account. If more space is needed, complete additional worksheets with only this section completed. Please note, all owners, regardless of ownership percentage, need to attend account opening to authorize the opening and establishment of an account.
